Seth S. Molloy, DO joins Midlands Orthopaedics & Neurosurgery, PA

Columbia, SC—Midlands Orthopaedics & Neurosurgery, PA is pleased to announce that Seth Molloy, D.O. joined the practice effective March 1, 2021.

Dr. Molloy has practiced in Columbia, SC since July 2014 when he joined Palmetto Health Neurosurgery Associates. Prior to practicing in Columbia, SC, he completed his neurosurgical spine fellowship at the University of Miami in Miami, FL. Dr. Molloy completed his residency at Midwestern University in Normal, Illinois. He received his doctor of osteopathy degree from A.T. Still University in Kirksville, MO, where he also received a master's in biomedical science. Dr. Molloy attended undergraduate school at the University of Tennessee—Chattanooga.

Dr. Molloy is excited to join our neurosurgeons, Dr. Lozanne and Dr. Rambo, and the entire team at Midlands Orthopaedics and Neurosurgery to continue caring for the Midlands community. He is now seeing patients at the downtown, Lexington, and Irmo offices.
